

Using browser based Google Hangouts

You will need a webcam & mic/headset

Sign in to your Google account using your Gmail address

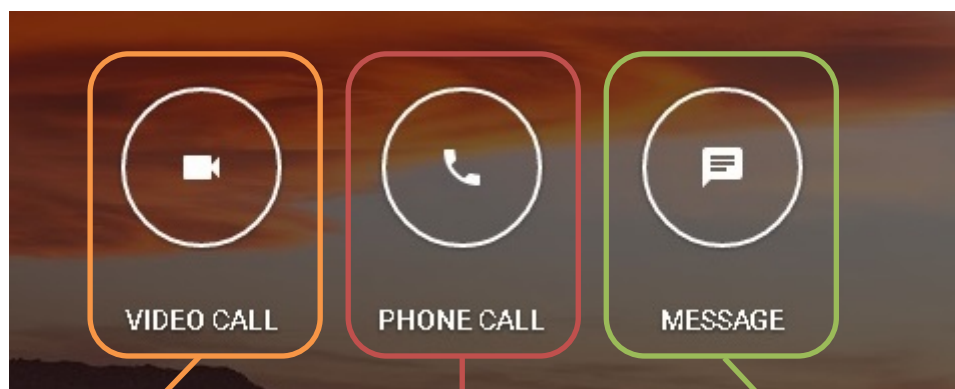

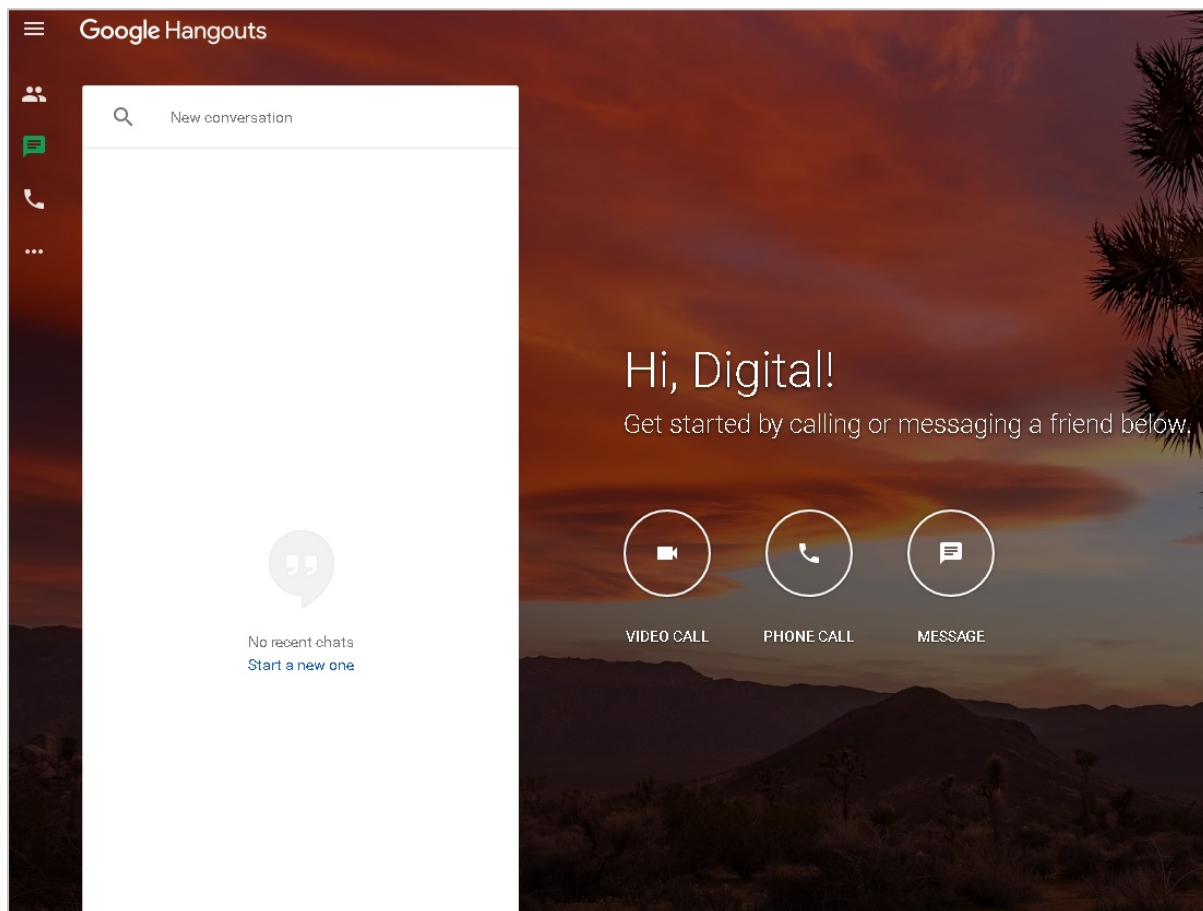

If you need to create an account or a new account click here

Once you have logged into your Google account select the Google Apps tab

Locate and select the Hangout app

Hangouts desktop/interface

Host and participate in video calls with one or more of your contacts

Make and receive phone calls. Please note that you will need credit

Instant Messaging (IM) with your contacts